

Class Description

Each student receives training in all phases of yearbook publishing. Assignments include but are not limited to the following: copy writing, proofreading, paper and computer layout, marketing, ad sales, and photography. Many hours of work outside of school will be required to meet the various deadlines throughout the year. Eligibility must be maintained to remain on staff. Grades are determined by fulfillment of all duties and requirements outlined in the Yearbook contract.

Advanced students will assume roles of responsibility such as Editor, Assistant Editor, Sports Editor, and Business Manager. Assignments include, but are not limited to the following: ladder layout, budget planning, advanced copy writing, editing, paper and computer layouts, selling ad space and photography.

Enrollment is subject to teacher approval!
